

WOMAN FOUND SHOT ADMITS SHE TRIED TO END HER LIFE

Miss Josephine Stinnard Had Been Despondent Since Death of Mother.

After questioning Miss Josephine Stinnard, forty-one, who was found in bed in her apartment, at No. 1111 Fulton Street, Brooklyn, shortly after midnight last night suffering from a fractured skull and a bullet wound over the left eye, detectives said the woman admitted that she had attempted to commit suicide. She is in the Jewish Hospital in a serious condition.

Miss Stinnard, according to friends, had said that she was tired and lonely and that she had nothing to live for. Her mother died recently.

Exonerate Bus Driver.

Joseph Kinsler of Port Lee, N. J., driver of one of the two motor buses that collided near Camp Merritt the night of April 25, resulting in seven deaths, was exonerated from blame yesterday when placed on trial for manslaughter before Judge Zabriske in Hackensack. Louis Samartin of Tenaflly, driver of the other machine, was continued on trial on a manslaughter charge.

BEER BEFORE HIGH COURT.

Elihu Root Argues for Two Brewing Firms.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—The Supreme Court may decide whether the War-time Prohibition Act makes illegal the manufacture of all beer or only that of more than 2.75 per cent. alcoholic content, at the same time it hands down an opinion on the constitutionality of the wartime act and the Volstead law for the measure's enforcement. The court's next decision day is Monday.

The appeals heard yesterday resulted from the dismissal of Federal indictments returned against the American Brewing Company in New Orleans and the Standard Brewery in Baltimore, resulting from their manufacture of 2.75 per cent. beer. Elihu Root and William L. Marbury, appearing for the brewers, argued that the "war beer" was not intoxicating and for that reason did not come under the provisions of that act.

$5,000 Cat Buried With Honors.

LENEX, Mass., Dec. 12.—All the employees of Wheatleigh, the summer home of Mrs. Carlo De Heredia of New York and Lenox, were in attendance yesterday when funeral rites were held for Hyacinth, a Persian cat, which died Tuesday. The cat is said to have cost $5,000. The remains were embalmed and brought here in a metal casket by automobile.

SMITH ADJUDGED INSANE.

Court Dismisses Charge Against Man Who Held Up Girl in Auto.

George Smith of Shelter Island, L. I., charged with assault in the second degree to-day was judged "not guilty by reason of insanity." He will be sent to Matteawan.

It was charged that Smith held up Miss Belle Dickerson, who was driving an automobile, compelled her to drive into the yard of Supervisor Charles Smith and threatened to kill her unless she induced her father to give him a check for $10,000.

Gold Medal for World Artist.

The Knights of Columbus Supreme Council in token of appreciation yesterday awarded to Lee P. Conroy of The World, and who lives at No. 644 Riverside Drive, a gold medal, which is a reproduction of a poster which Mr. Conroy drew about a year ago illustrating the spirit of the Knights of Columbus to Americans on the firing line.

BOYS' CLOTHES

Made in our own Shops

If you made a suit for your boy it would cost you less than if you bought it, but, of course, it would lack those guarantees of wear that an expert tailor would give it. But consider buying it here—all our Boys' Clothes are made in our own shops, so they cost you less than the same grade clothes that another store would buy from a manufacturer. And they have every guarantee of wear that expert tailors can give them.
